Terms and conditions of use

These terms and conditions apply to the "Orange Wednesdays" offer. The "Orange Wednesdays" offer is intended for Customers and enables them to benefit each Wednesday from a free cinema seat (excluding any surcharge for 3D films) for any cinema seat purchased at the usual rate for the same film and at the same screening (excluding special screenings and previews) in one of the Partner Cinemas.

Previews, alternative events (classical retransmissions, concerts...), special events such as Ladies at the Movies, Men at the Movies... and other private screenings (Wednesdays) are not included in this offer.

Conditions

This Offer is free of charge (excluding any costs associated with sending an SMS) and valid in Luxembourg for all customers, with a limit of one free cinema ticket per Wednesday for one ticket purchased by the customer, and subject to the number of tickets made available each Wednesday by Orange.

Orange Wednesdays service entitles customers to a free cinema ticket on Wednesdays for every purchase of a first ticket during the week. This single-use code entitles the customer to one free cinema ticket for every cinema ticket purchased.
The code received by SMS is used to obtain a second free cinema ticket when purchasing the first ticket on kinépolis.lu or at the cinema box office. This code must be mentioned.
The code received by SMS is valid until the Wednesday following its reception.
The code does not give entitlement to any financial consideration and is not transferable or assignable for valuable consideration or for any other consideration whatsoever.
To take advantage of this offer, eligible customers holding the code must go to a Partner Cinema and present their code at the cash desk.
Customers have no priority or guaranteed seats over other customers at the Partner Cinema. The beneficiary of the Offer must comply with the contractual conditions in force in the Partner Cinema where he/she goes to benefit from the Offer.

- Once validated, the code cannot be reused.
- Offer valid for one ticket per Orange customer per week.
- Only the original sms can be presented at the cinema box office. No copies or photos will be accepted. Ticket sales and admission fees are subject to the conditions in force at participating cinemas.
- There is only one free admission per customer and per paid cinema ticket.
- Obtaining the code does not guarantee a cinema ticket. Orange cannot be held responsible if no seats are available at the screening chosen by the customer. SMS holders and their friends do not have priority over other customers.
- SMS messages are not transferable.
- The offer applies to normal, reduced and student rates purchased on kinepolis.lu or at the cinema box office. In the case of exceptionally long and/or 3D films, the 2nd ticket may also be charged. Any exceptions will be displayed at the box office.
- The free cinema ticket and the paid cinema ticket are issued for the same film.
- Sending an SMS to 60352 is free in France. Receiving an SMS will be charged at 35 cts nationally.
- Sending an SMS to 60352 from abroad will be charged at the normal rate. Receiving an SMS from abroad will be charged at 35 cts.

Modification at Orange's initiative

Orange may make changes to the "Orange Wednesdays" Offer. If necessary, it will inform customers in advance.

Responsability

The Customer must use the "Orange Wednesdays" Offer in accordance with these conditions.
Orange provides the means necessary for the proper operation of the "Orange Wednesdays" Offer. Orange may not be held liable in the event of use of the Offer by the Customer that does not comply with these conditions.
